November 2011

Your unique story unfolds in a series of magical moments. Picture yourself as the exquisite centerpiece in the flower-filled garden of a grand English estate surrounded by your closest friends and family. Imagine a reception by starlight with the finest seasonal foods and quality wines. The bridal suite is divinely romantic, spacious and the perfect place to end your dream day.

For 20 years Lilianfels Blue Mountains Resort and Spa has been turning the ultimate wedding fantasy into blissful reality with its flare for elegance, detail and breathtaking settings.

Only 90 minutes from central Sydney, Lilianfels offers a range of wedding options. Have your ceremony in an estate courtyard, a pine forest with views of the boundless Jamison Valley, or the open balcony of the historic 1890s Darley's restaurant cottage. Walk into a private resort reception as glamorous as a bridal magazine, and treat your guests to the personalised menu you've created with the SMH 1 Chef Hat ranked kitchen.

Voted in 2011 by Travel and Leisure magazine as one of the top five lodges and resorts in the Oceania region, and Australasia's Leading Resort at the World Tourism Awards, Lilianfels has proven its position as a leading luxury experience – the reason why so many brides are heading here for the unforgettable wedding event.

Catering for two to 100 guests, Lilianfels offers a range of lavish wedding packages and custom-designed events, organised by a dedicated and experienced wedding team. Arrive in advance with your friends for the Hen's Overnight Pampering Package which includes a calming massage, yoga and a pre-wedding dinner celebration.

Choose from the intimate Lady Lucy Package for a day of fun and indulgence over High Tea. The Lady Corinthia and Lady Lilian packages in private rooms, the Lady Darley option in the romantic homestead with its fireplaces, chandeliers and valley views, all include overnight deluxe accommodation, breakfast for the bridal couple and a four hour reception.

For the guests, they can enjoy their own Lilianfels pre and post wedding experience with a High Tea indulgence, use of the indoor and outdoor pools, pampering at the Lilianfels Spa, the reading and pool rooms, nearby nature trails, or relaxing in The Lounge with its enviable wine list and slick service.

Lilianfels is the venue where you awake on your wedding day in a heavenly heritage room knowing your grandest dreams are about to come true.
